The Administrative Machinery

Administrative Machinery for Electoral Roll Management

Designated Officer

- Appointed by ERO under Rule 14 of RER, 1960
- Responsible for display of Electoral Roll, Parts and receive objections/claims
- Receives applications in Forms 6, 7, 8, 8A from the electors at designated locations

Appellate Officers

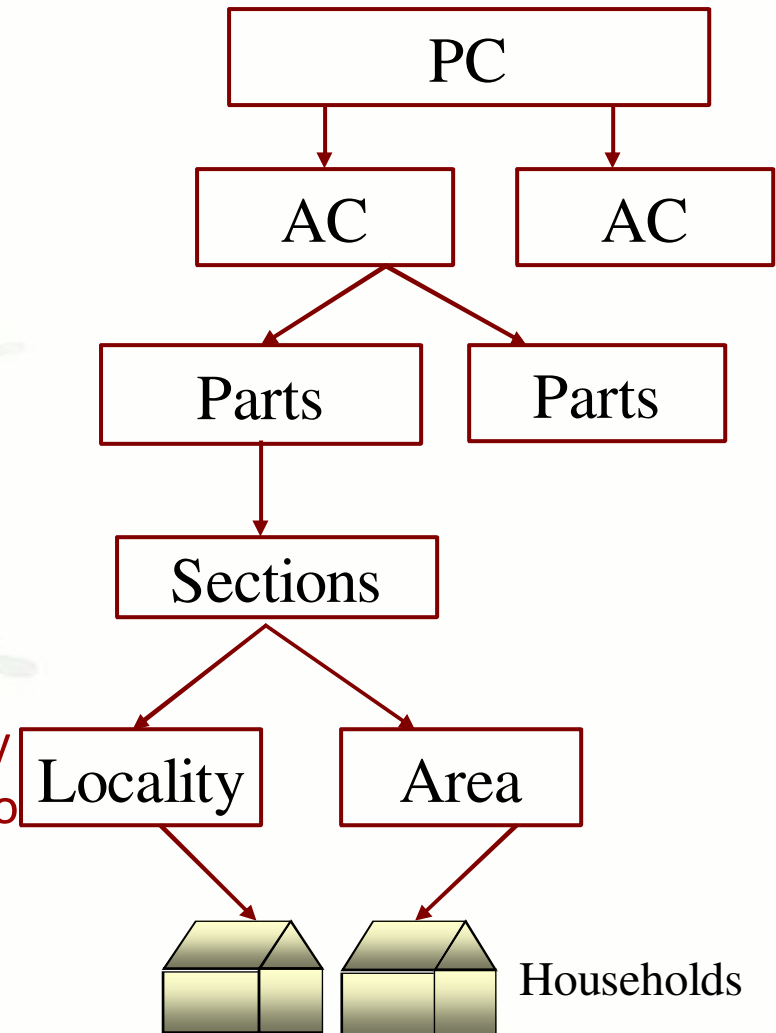

- The appeal on the decision of ERO on the applications of inclusion / deletion received during revision / continuous updating can be preferred to the officer designated by ECI. Refer ECI notification.
- Further appeal on the decision of appellate officer can be preferred to CEO.

Time limit for appeal 15 days from the date of ERO's order

Electoral Rolls for Assembly and Parliamentary Constituency

- Electoral Rolls are prepared for Assembly Constituency (AC) under the provisions of RP Act 1950
- No separate Electoral Roll for Parliamentary Constituency (PC) is maintained where the Electoral Rolls of PC are comprised of Electoral Rolls of its Assembly segments (except J & K)
- Electoral Rolls are organized as geographically defined Parts which are further organized into Sections and households
- Each Part has an identified Polling Station where electors cast their votes on the poll day

TYPES OF REVISION

- Intensive Revision
- Summary Revision
- Partly intensive and partly summary
- Special summary
- Continuous updating

iiidem

Types of Revision

Intensive Revision:

- Done de-novo without reference to earlier existing Roll (not a preferred method these days)
- Enumerator visits house to house (H2H) and obtains details of eligible persons in enumeration pad.
- Draft Roll is prepared and published to invite claims/objections
- After disposal of claims and objections, Final Roll is published

iiidem

Types of Revision

- Summary Revision:
 - Done every year except if intensive revision is ordered
 - Existing Roll published as draft inviting claims and objections
 - No need of house to house survey
 - Designated officers sit at polling stations to receive claims and objections
 - Period of Claims and objections can be from 15 to 30 days
 - After disposal of claims and objections, Final Rolls [Mother Roll and supplements] are published

Types of Revision

Partly Intensive & Partly Summary Revision:

- Existing Roll published as draft inviting claims and objections
- House to House survey is also done by BLOs.
- Designated officers sit at polling stations to receive claims and objections
- Period of Claims and objections can be from 15 to 30 days
- After disposal of claims and objections, Final Rolls are published

Special Revision:

- Due to the reason of inaccuracies like omission, left out area etc, special revision is carried out
- May be intensive, summary or Partly intensive and Partly intensive revision

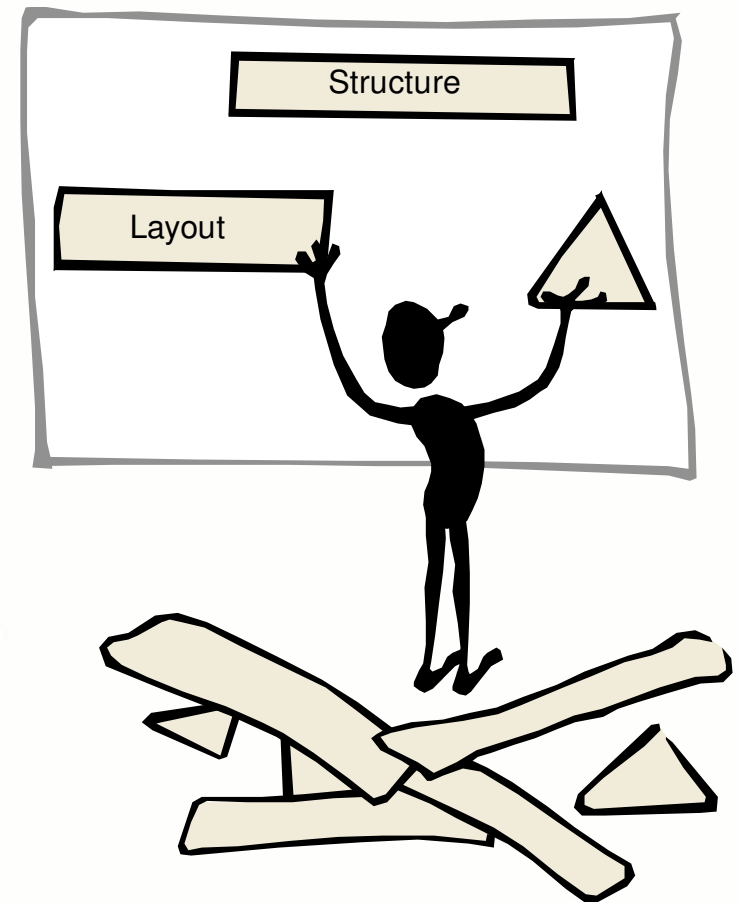

Continuous Updating

- In between revisions any person can make a claim or objection to the Electoral Registration Officer, and ERO disposes of the claim or objection by following the procedure given in the Registration of Electors Rules 1960. This is called Continuous updating.
- The process of continuous updating is stopped during an election from the last date of filing nominations till the declaration of results

Layout and Structure of Electoral Roll (ER)

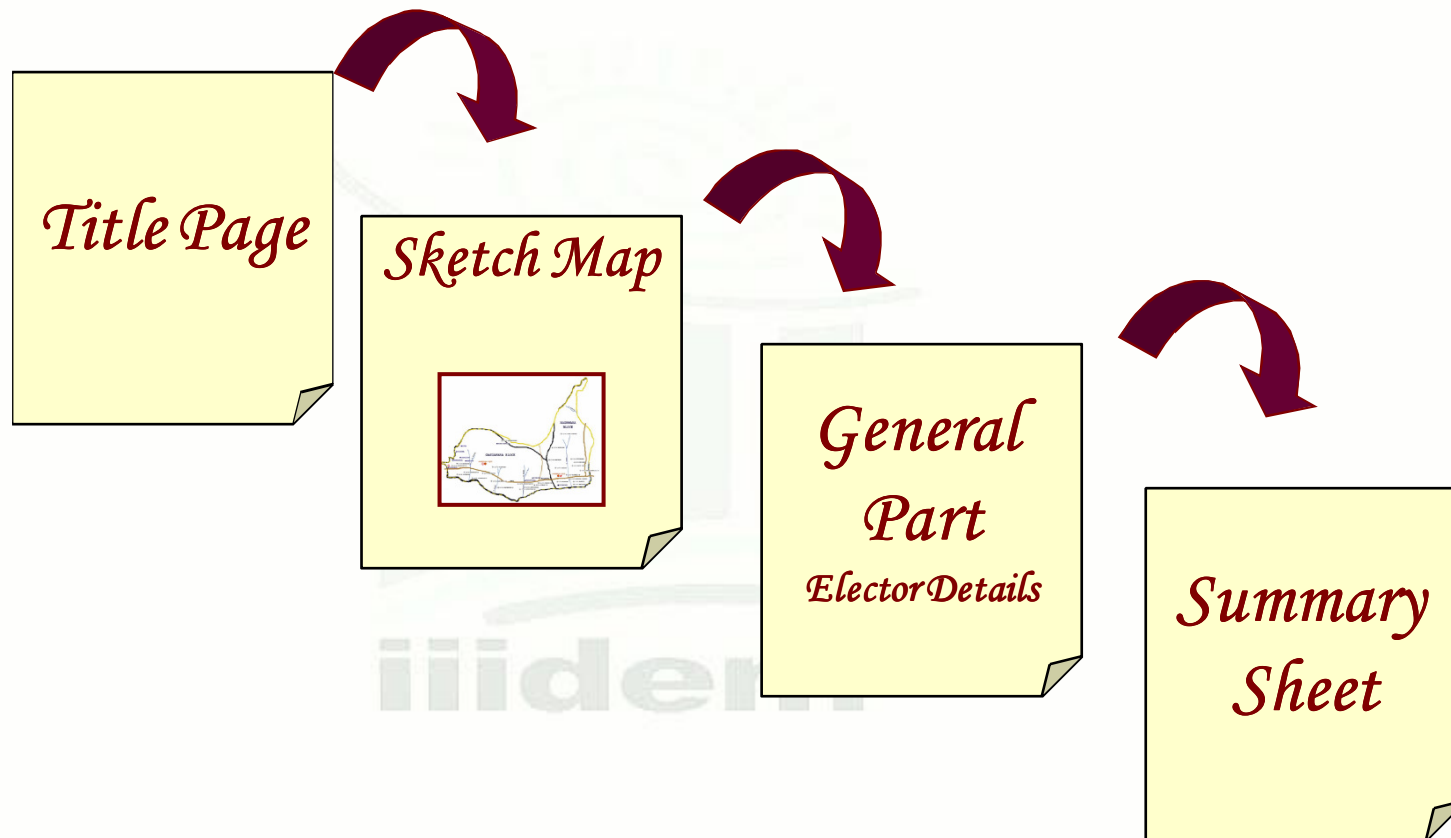

- ER of every AC should have title page specifying:
 - Year of preparation/revision
 - Number, name and reservation status
 - Details of Constituency and number of Parts
- Followed by table of contents indicating serial order of area covered
- Title page is followed by Constituency map
- Summary sheet attached at the end of Assembly Roll

Layout and Structure of Electoral Roll

- Electoral Roll is divided into convenient 'Parts' with identifiable geographical boundary having its individual title page under Sub-rule (1) of Rule 5, RER 1960
- This title page is followed by a sketch map of Polling Station area in that Part
- Followed by elector details in prescribed format
- Summary sheet is provided at the end of Roll of a Part
- These Parts are further organized into Sections
- The electors details are arranged in 10-column format in 'text Roll' and with photo in 'photo Roll'
- Last Section in each Part is for Overseas Electors
- Last Part of Roll, lists the details of Service Voters (SVs) in English
- Number of names included in any Part should not exceed 2000 under Rule 5 (4), RER 1960

- ❖ Rule 4 of RE Rules 1960, requires ECI to notify the languages in which the roll of a constituency be prepared. It is normally the official language of the state being spoken by majority of the people. If any minority language is spoken by not less than 20% of the population , then ECI notifies that language also.
- ❖ The Commission has further issued instructions that in addition to language notified, the roll in metropolitan cities shall be prepared in English also.

Polling Stations

- Each Part of Electoral Roll has a Polling Station for a well defined and compact geographical area where DEO/RO facilitates electors of that Part to vote. A poll taken at any other place is void ab-initio.
- DEO is responsible for providing sufficient number of Polling Stations under Section 25 of the R.P. Act 1951 with prior approval of ECI
- Part number of Roll and Polling Station number should be same
- To reach a polling station electors should not travel more than 2 KMs. It should be within the polling area and preferably in a Govt. building. Should not be in hospitals or religious places
- Each revenue village of 300+ electors should have independent Polling Station, if a suitable building is available.
- Irrespective of electorate size, identifiable pocket/hamlet/village of weaker section should have independent Polling Stations.
- If the polling area comprise of more than one village /localities then , as far as practicable, PS should be in the village with more electors.

Polling Stations

- To create a new Polling Station
 - DEO first publishes a proposal in Draft Form at his office with minimum 7 days notice period
 - Invites objections and suggestions from recognized political Parties/ sitting MPs and MLAs etc.
 - After due consideration of received suggestions and objections/ complaints, the DEO sends the proposal through CEO to ECI for approval.
 - After the approval of ECI, final list of Polling Stations is published in the prescribed manner.
 - ERO rearranges electoral roll accordingly.
 - Any further changes/modifications in the list should be sent to ECI in the prescribed format only for approval .
